

ANTH-211 – Anthropology of Gender

University Arts and Science

Effective Term & Year: Fall 2022
Course Outline Review Date: 2024-03-01

Program Area: Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences

Description:

This course explores the cultural constructions of gender through an ethnographic perspective that engages students in cross-cultural comparative analysis. Students will critically examine early studies and anthropological perspectives of gender as well as current, Indigenous, and post-modern perspectives including feminist anthropology and queer theory. Cultural constructions of gender are explored through various topics and social issues.
