

CSJD – Criminal and Social Justice Diploma

University Arts and Science

Effective Term & Year: Fall 2022

Program Outline Review Date: 2027-03-01

Program Area: Fine Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences

Description:

In the criminal and social justice diploma program, students study theories of human and social behavior, criminal justice system and cultural and institutional roots of crime and deviance. Students will learn about oppression and marginalization and will further their understanding of Indigenous peoples and Indigenous knowledge. They will develop effective skills in cross-cultural relations, communication, conflict resolution and crisis intervention. Students will engage in experiential and interdisciplinary learning opportunities to develop the knowledge and skills to further their post-secondary education or to prepare for a potential career within the field of criminal and social justice.

Program Information:

This program is in the University Studies department and includes applied courses in the Child, Youth and Family studies/Human Service Worker program area.

The diploma program is designed to prepare students for a potential career in the field of criminal or social justice or to further post-secondary education such as a bachelor degree.

This program is designed to facilitate maximum transferability to a full degree program after 2 years at COTR.

Credentials Granted:

Criminal and Social Justice Diploma

First year students are encouraged to select a two-year diploma program. They can exit after one year of coursework with a certificate.

The diploma is awarded to students who successfully complete the two-year diploma curriculum, a total of 60 credits.

Grand Total Credits: 60

Program Completion Requirements Notes:

A grade of "D" grants credit, but may not be sufficient as a prerequisite for sequential courses.

Notes: Students intending to complete a degree should complete ENGL 100 plus either ENGL 101 or ENGL 102 in their diploma. Please consult the degree-granting institution on its English requirements.

Students transferring to VIU after first year must complete CRIM 135 before admission.

Flexible Assessment: Yes

In some cases students may be able to apply for recognition of prior learning outside the classroom. This flexible assessment process provides equivalent course credit. It is a rigorous process that may include external evaluation, worksite assessment, demonstration, standardized test, self-assessment, interview, products/portfolio, and challenge exam, or other measures as appropriate. Tuition fees apply. Contact an education advisor for more information.

Program Transfer Credit:

For information about block transfer agreements between programs in British Columbia, Alberta, and elsewhere, please visit <http://www.cotr.bc.ca/transfer>.

To minimize transfer issues, check with an academic advisor at the institution that will receive the transfer credits.
